Julie Williams is owner and lead photographer at Pretty in Pictures. Her photography business was born of a passion to create images that captured the beauty in life, and the action and emotion of children in sports. Now more than a decade later her goal is for Pretty in Pictures to be a leading provider of freelance photography services in York Region as well as creating memorable and timeless images that speak of her love and passion for her craft. Julie's freelance work includes being the official photographer for the Town of Whitchurch-Stouffville, regularly submitting articles to local newspapers and providing on-site coverage of events for corporate clients.
