

Lis Simpson has been active as a hot glass artist and an organizer of high calibre art shows and studio tours for seventeen years. Participating in numerous gallery exhibits, she recently won Best in Show at the Scugog Council for the Arts. She has been chair or promotion chair for a number of art shows/studio tours. Lis served on the Board of the International Society of Glass Beadmakers, representing Canada. She has taken formal classes but also teaches workshops in various venues. Lis has mentored a number of emerging artists to be successful in their careers.

You can follow Lis' work on Facebook!