

As a singer/songwriter and performer from an early age, Marcus Schwan's definition of a successful career was to create a sustainable lifestyle in music industry, whatever the capacity may be. In 2016 he launched Music by Marcus, an entertainment company specializing in Retirement and Long Term Care Residences. Since launch, Marcus has performed over 700 times in residences all across Ontario and has cemented his position as one of the top performers in the industry. The next venture is taking his platform online, building awareness to entertainers and service providers about the opportunities the Senior Living

Industry holds and connecting them with industry professionals.
