

Sharon Gaum-Kuchar has over 25 years of creative development and project management experience profiling Canadian art in Category “A” public art institutions and the culture sectors of municipal, provincial and federal governments. Curatorial and exhibition practice has been a major focus of her comprehensive museological expertise. Sharon holds a Master of Museum Studies from the University of Toronto and an Honours Bachelor of Arts, Art History from Carleton University. Currently, she is the Senior Art Curator and Planner at the City of Vaughan where she is responsible for directing the City-Wide curatorial vision and Art Mandate profiling Vaughan as a creative city. Previously, she held posts as the founding Director/Curator at the Frederick Horsman Varley Art Gallery of Markham; Manager of Visitor Services, Registrar of the Gallery School and Travelling Exhibitions and Outreach Coordinator at the Art Gallery of Ontario; Exhibit Design Evaluator at the Royal Ontario Museum; Curatorial Researcher at the National Archives of Canada; Curatorial Assistant at Carleton University and Education Intern at the National Gallery of Canada.